

MONGOLIAN VISA INFORMATION

Foreign nationals wishing to visit Mongolia must apply for a visa corresponding to the purpose of their visit. A few countries have a visa exemption (see below), but this does not apply to Norwegian citizens.

Nationals from these countries are exempt from needing a visa to Mongolia: Argentine, Belarus, Brasil, Canada, Cuba, Germany, Hong Kong (may stay up to 14 days), Israel, Japan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Macao, Malaysia, Philippines, Russia, Serbia, Singapore, Thailand, Turkey, Ukraine (when officially invited), UN (on official mission), Uruguay, USA.

This visa can be extended for another 30 days (total stay 60 days) if you apply for it at the Immigration authorities in Ulaanbaatar no later than 7 working days before your first visa expires. Such extension is allowed once per every 90 days.

Your arrival in Mongolia must take place within 90 days of the visa being issued.

Please note that your visa application will not be processed if it is incomplete, if requested attachments are missing, or if the visa application fee is not paid.
